ROSHAN JAIN

Dear FRIENDS —

December 2024

Happy Solstice! Happy Holidays! Happy New Year!

After 37 years at 6 Beacon Street, we have moved to a new suite on the 10th floor with a view of the State House dome! We are proud to continue to serve our clients and welcome you to visit.

What have we been up to this year? In April, Neil was quoted in Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly regarding a complex conflict-of-interest legal malpractice case, noting that “A breach of the Rules of Professional Conduct is not negligence per se,” demonstrating our reputation as a top litigation and personal injury firm. And over the summer, Roshan won two significant victories: resolving a legal malpractice case against a prominent Washington D.C. firm and successfully mediating another challenging legal malpractice case arising from a divorce.

While we work full time for our clients, we donate much time and energy to our non-profit and volunteer passions. Neil continues to volunteer for the Appalachian Mountain Club, currently as an Advisory Board member. This year he put time and effort into completing a project fundraising for a net-zero carbon emissions electric passenger boat. Roshan continues coaching youth soccer in both the fall and spring.

We note anecdotally that there has been an uptick in personal bankruptcies. While we are honored when our clients and their friends retain us for this important work, we are concerned about the implications for our shared sense of financial security and prosperity. With guarded optimism, we hope 2025 is prosperous for everyone.

Our website, YouTube channel, and blogs offer regular updates, and helpful information. As always, please call us with any and all legal questions. We always look forward to the opportunity to work with our clients, past and present, and their family and friends. On behalf of our attorneys and our legal team, we wish you, your family, and your loved ones a very happy holiday season, and peace and health in the New Year.

Very truly yours,

Neil & Roshan
